IT Diploma & Co-op

Employers are seeking individuals who possess technical knowledge, practical communication skills, and strong leadership abilities. The best candidates for positions are those whohave the ability to anticipate the needs of customers, and to deliver exceptional customer service. For this reason the Canadian College IT Diploma program has been designed with hands-on technical training from Cisco, Comptia, Red hat and Microsoft integrated with practical business courses and relevant co-op opportunities to ensure students graduate with the skills and abilities employers in are looking for.

IT Course Sequence

CC 139 - 21st Century Communications
CC 140 - Communications *
CC 141 - Marketing 1*
CC 150 - Business computers 1 *
CC 430 - Comptia A+

CC 105 - Business Enterprise *
CC 106 - Business simulation *
CC 150 - Business computers 2 *
CC 431 - Comptia 220
CC 280a - Career Preparation

CC 285a Co-op #1
Worksite: 24 weeks

CC 125 - E-Commerce 1
CC130 - Operations Management 1 *
CC 440 - Cisco ICND1
CC 450 - Microsoft Server 2003
CC 460 - Red Hat - Linux Fundamentals

CC 285b Co-op #2
Worksite: 24 weeks

CC 126 - E-Commerce 2
CC 405 - PM Fundamentals
CC 441 - Cisco ICND2
CC 461 - LINUX Administrator
CC 280b - IT portfolio

*College Transfer

Program Objectives
While studying at Canadian College students will gain:
1. Basic IT certifications from
- Cisco
- Comptia
- Microsoft
- Red Hat

2. Functional working understanding of:
- Ecommerce strategies
- Business planning skills
- Corporate structures
- Global technology trends

3. Over 1000 hours of IT related experience

Entrance Requirements
- High School Diploma, High School Completion Certificate, or equivalent
- iBT 70, or IELTS 5.5 or 78 on the Canadian College exam

Short Course Available
Specialty Certificate Course (subject to availability)

Canadian College on the web www.canadiancollege.com